Tango Party

Mr. J. D. McInerney was host on Wednesday evening for an informal and very delightful Tango party at his bungalow at Waikiki. Ragging of all kinds was the order of the evening, but the Tango, the latest fad in the new dances, predominated. A delicious supper was served later in the evening on the broad lanais that overlook the sea. Among those present at this jolly affair were Miss Helen Alexander, Capt. and Mrs. Thomas of Schofield Barracks, Mrs. Bodrero, Capt. and Mrs. Carpenter of Fort Shafter, Capt. and Mrs. W. R. Gibson of Fort Shafter, Mrs. A. Lee Morris, Miss Betty Case, Miss Harriet Lucas, Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Violet McKee, Miss Bertha Kopke, Mr. George Collins, Miss Alice Cornet, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Klamp, Dr. Mudd of Fort Shafter, Lieut. Tilton of Fort de Russy, Lieut. Hardis, Mr. Carruthers, Lieut. Carl Bostrom, U. S. N., Mr. Albert Clark, Lieut. W. C. Rose of Fort Shafter, Lieut. Sylvester of Schofield Barracks, Paymaster Izard, Mr. Thomas Gray, Mr. Frederick Wickman and others.

Anniversary Entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoogs were hosts at a large but delightfully informal party on Wednesday evening to celebrate their first wedding anniversary. The decorations were carried out in a color scheme of white and green to be more symbolic of the original event a year ago. The evening was pleasantly spent with old-fashioned games and a mirth provoking mock wedding. A toothsome lunch was served toward the end of the evening. Congratulations and good wishes were showered upon the young couple. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hoogs, Mrs. Fanny Love, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Guard, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jenkins, Miss Laura Atherton, Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Grace Dawson, Miss Elizabeth Ferrier, Miss Fanny Hoogs, Miss Alice Hoogs, Miss Marjory Gilman, Miss Marguerite Wadman, Miss Isabelle McCormick, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Marie Mann, Miss Stella Hoogs, Mrs. Cleo Case, Miss Lucile Hoogs, Mr. Will Hoogs, Mr. Charles McWayne, Mr. Theodore Cooke, Mr. James Morgan, Mr. Cyril Hoogs, Mr. Donald Ross, Mr. Harold Gear, Mr. Percy Nottage, Mr. Percy Deverill, Mr. William Ouderkerk, Mr. David Larsen, Mr. Zen Genoves, Mr. Jack Young, Mr. Ernest Clark, Miss Niebel, Mr. Alexander Anderson, Mr. Walter Love, and Mr. Richard Catton.

Marriage Announcement

The following announcement, of interest to Honolulu circles, both military and civilian, was received by a number of local people this week: Rear Admiral and Mrs. Walter Cleveland Cowles announce the marriage of their daughter to

Lieutenant Leo Sahm

United States Navy

on Tuesday, May the twenty-seventh, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen

Coronado, California

Here on Honeymoon.

Few bridal couples of the season have chosen to pass the first week of the honeymoon trip on the ocean, but Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lemcke are exceptions and are now in Honolulu. They will spend several months on the islands before returning to California. The marriage of the couple was one of the pretty June events and took place in Marin county with a number from this side of the bay in attendance. The bride formerly made her home in Alameda, where she still has many friends. As Miss Elizabeth Penfield, she took a prominent part in society.

Engagement Announcement.

The engagement is announced of Miss Ruth G. Carter, whose engagement to T. Desmond Collins of the Wailuku Sugar Company, Wailuku, was recently announced, has been in Honolulu over a year, coming here from her home in Livermore, California. The wedding date is set early in January of next year.

Fort Shafter Hop Suppers.

The fortnightly hop at Fort Shafter this evening is being the occasion for a number of the informal but ever popular hop suppers that bring the evening to such a successful close.

Capt. and Mrs. G. H. Jamerson are being hosts at one in honor of Miss Ada Hart, Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Margaret Wyman and Miss Marie C. Church, who are stopping at the Moana en route to Japan.

Capt. and Mrs. Lincoln are also entertaining at a hop supper that promises to be a large and jolly affair.

Mrs. Halstead's Dinner.

Dr. George Tucker Smith of the navy, who left on this morning's Sierra, was the guest of honor at an informal dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halstead on Wednesday night. The table was decorated with white Shasta daisies and ferns with other appropriate accessories. After dinner the evening was devoted to bridge. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armstrong, Mrs. Annie Lackland, Mr. Hobie Walker, Mr. Will McInerney, Mr. William Wood, Dr. Walters and Dr. Tucker Smith.

Fort Shafter Hop.

The regular fortnightly hop will take place this evening at Fort Shafter. These events are small and informal, therefore correspondingly enjoyable. A great many people from town, both military and civilian, are planning to motor out to the affair and to attend hop suppers afterwards.

Lieutenant Jackson Takes House.

Lieutenant Franklin P. Jackson, Second Infantry, and Mrs. Jackson, have taken a house at 1305 Matlock avenue. Miss E. P. Cooley of New Orleans, arrived yesterday on the China, and will be a house guest of the Jacksons for the summer.

Dance at Shafter.

The usual hop of the Fort Shafter garrison will take place this evening at 8:30 in the hop room adjacent to the rooms of the regimental mess and promises to be quite a large affair, as a number of guests from Honolulu and neighboring garrisons will attend. Lieutenants Halloran and Silver, 2d Infantry, are in charge of arrangements as representatives of the 2d Infantry mess. Prior to the hop, the usual number of dinner parties will occur in the garrison, the most elaborate one being given by Lieutenant and Mrs. Fred A. Cook in honor of Lieutenant and Mrs. Franklin Potter Jackson and their house guest, Miss Emmy Cooley of New Orleans, who arrived yesterday on the China. Miss Cooley will be with Mrs. Jackson for a visit of about two months and Mrs. Jackson plans to return to the coast with Miss Cooley on the completion of the latter's sojourn in Honolulu.

After the hop Captain and Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln will entertain a large number of the dancers with an elaborate hop supper in their quarters in the "Bachelor building."

SOCIAL NOTES

Capt. A. P. Niblack, U. S. N., the retiring American naval attaché to the embassy at Berlin, Germany, had a farewell audience with the Kaiser at Döberitz, June 12. His successor, Lieut. Comdr. Walter R. Gherardi, was presented at the same time. Both took luncheon with the Kaiser, who gave Captain Niblack an autograph photograph.—Army & Navy Journal.

Among the guests registered at the Moana hotel are Mrs. C. P. Hart and the Misses Martha McChesney, Ada L. Hart, Margaret Wyman and Marie C. Church, whom she is chaperoning. This little party make it their practice to take a trip some place every year, Hawaii and the Orient being their objective points on this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Baldwin of Kaula were hosts at an exceedingly pretty dinner at the Moana Hotel on Monday evening in honor of their son Douglas, who was graduated from Oahu College the previous week. The centerpiece was a dainty arrangement of pink sweet peas and lilies, while little pink butterfly baskets marked the places. After dinner the guests attended the graduating dance which was also held at the Moana. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Baldwin, Miss Ruth Johnston, Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Katherine Blake, Mr. Dwight Baldwin, Mr. Farant Turner and Mr. Douglas Baldwin.

Col. and Mrs. George Donavin of Columbus, Ohio, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary, to Mr. Ernest Springer of New York city. The wedding will be an event of the early fall. Miss Donavin is a sister of Capt. Charles Donavin, Ord. Dept., U. S. A., and Ensign Kirkwood H. Donavin, U. S. N., now in command of submarine P-4.—Army & Navy Journal.

The polo game this afternoon at Schofield Barracks has been an event of great interest to local enthusiasts, a great many parties motoring out from town to attend. Now that the roads have been so greatly improved, it is becoming more and more popular to motor to Waialeale for an event of this kind, though a few years ago it would have been greatly huddled at.

Miss Molly Grace was an outgoing passenger on this morning's Sierra. Miss Grace goes to California for a visit of several months.
